ORDER ON REQUEST FOR CLARIFICATION

- 1. On October 6, 2011 an order issued addressing several pre-hearing conference issues.
- 2. The order contained a reference to a report generated by the BSR as an "initial" report without providing a date for that report.
- 3. On October 7, 2011 counsel for John Andrews requested clarification of that reference in the October 6, 2011 order questioning whether that meant the order of October 28, 2010 or another report.
- 4. The BSR also published a report dated August 2, 2011 that was not accompanied by an exhibit list but does contain end note or footnote reference to separate documents.

WHEREFORE, to the extent necessary, the order of October 6, 2011 is clarified and supplemented and it is hereby ordered that:

- A. The report reference appearing in the previous order is to the BSR report of October 28, 2010.
- B. In addition, such documents as may be referenced in the end notes or footnotes of the August 2, 2011 BSR report, upon written request of a party shall be made available for immediate production, subject to the objection of owners, controllers or persons in possession of them.
- C. If such documents have not already been subject of discussions among counsel regarding production, then those discussions should proceed immediately, subsequent production should thereafter occur in a timely manner.
- D. If documents have been demanded and agreement is not reached, then the requesting party is to inform the presiding officer by formal motion of the document sought and the purpose for which it is sought.
- E. The presiding officer will act on that motion in due course allowing a reasonable opportunity for specific responsive objections to be filed stating the legal basis for refusal to meet the pending request.
